5. Drugs and Alcohol Employee Guidelines

Alcohol and substance misuse can have a detrimental effect upon health, it can adversely influence work performance and relationships with colleagues and customers. It can result in reduced efficiency and absenteeism.

5.1 Existing conditions

J Threlkeld Ltd will treat any absence due to long term alcohol and substance abuse in the same way as sickness absence on condition that you have discussed the situation with us, have obtained professional treatment and are maintaining regular contact with the appropriate occupational health service.

We will treat all relevant discussions in strict confidence.

If inadequate work performance or unacceptable behavior, including poor work relationships, occur or persist, the matter may be dealt with under the disciplinary procedure. Careful consideration about disciplinary action will be given if you have acknowledged the existence of a problem and/or have agreed to obtain medical help for the condition. However, if you fail to complete a prescribed course of treatment or have a relapse following treatment, disciplinary action may be taken.

5.2 Alcohol or drugs at work

The consumption of alcohol or drugs on company premises is explicitly forbidden. Alcohol or drugs should not be brought onto J Threlkeld Ltd premises or venues where J Threlkeld Ltd is working, under any circumstances. Any breach of this rule will result in disciplinary action being taken which is likely to result in summary dismissal.

There are occasions such as corporate events or celebrations when management may make an exception. Prior notice will be sent to those employees attending.

5.3 Under the influence of alcohol or drugs at work

If an employee is known to be, or strongly suspected of being, intoxicated by alcohol or drugs during working hours, arrangements will be made for them to be escorted from J Threlkeld Ltd premises immediately and arrangement made for their safe transport home. When the employee has recovered, it may be necessary to take disciplinary action or issue them with a letter from HR warning them that any further occurrences may result in formal disciplinary action, which may include dismissal.

If an employee is known to be, or strongly suspected of being, suffering from the after effects of alcohol or drugs during working hours they will be assessed by their Manager, a Senior Manager and/or HR to ascertain if they are capable of performing their role to a satisfactory level. They may be asked to leave the premises (on all occasions if working in a customer facing role) or to continue as normal. The employee will be issued with a letter from HR warning them that any further occurrences may result in formal disciplinary action which may include dismissal.

5.4 Medication

Employees taking drugs which have not been prescribed on medical grounds, or which are not recognised proprietary brands, will, in the absence of mitigating circumstances, be deemed to be committing an act of gross misconduct and will thus render themselves likely to be summarily dismissed as will any employee believed to be buying or selling drugs, or in possession of unlawful, non-prescription drugs.

LANTRA will be notified of any misuse.
